ITEM 3: TRAFFIC CONCERNS

Mr. Weidenmaier approached the commission with concerns by citizens about a left turn lane at Health Center Parkway and Garth Brooks Blvd.

Mr. Shivers said a left turn lane is in future plans at the location along with other future development.

Captain Knight added that there has been traffic counts done in the location and there is a protected left turn signal needed.

Chief Wieczorek also noted that a speed limit change may be needed at a later time.

ITEM 4: OPEN DISCUSSION

Mr. Stewart said the lanes stripes on Main Street at Garth Brooks Blvd. should be replaced with plastic stripes by June or July.

Mr. Wiedenmaier expressed concerns at the intersection of Andrew Dr. and Garth Brooks Blvd. Multiple cars are caught in the intersection during red signal.

Mr. Shivers updated the commission on all road construction projects.
